

How Stockholm City Library will be an ASD Friendly Library

International Seminar
Inclusive Library Programmes for Users with Autism
Spectrum Disorder (ASD): Practices and Potential

Lynn Aplberg Librarian and Projectmanager for
"A Library for All Without Exceptions"

Moscow 1 april 2021

- Translated by: Britt-Marie Ingdén-Ringselle "Youth Librarian at Stockholm Public Library and the mobile library. Earlier Teamleader of PUNKTmedis, the Youth Library in Stockholm. From 2010 connected with The Russian State Library for Young Adults through the IFLA Sister library project.

Presented by: Ingrid Källström

Does it work?

The librarians' activities for a double priority group

Library for all without exceptions

The bag with tools for concentration

Tangles

Hearing aids

The seven questions

What shall I do?

Where shall I be?

With whom shall I be?

For how long will it last?

What happens next?

What do I need?

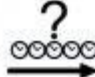

Why shall I do it?

7?? De sju frågorna

1.  Vad ska jag göra?

2.  Var ska jag vara?

3.  Vem ska jag vara med?

4.  Hur länge ska det hålla på?

5.  Vad ska hända sen?

6.  Vad behöver jag ha?

7.  Varför ska jag göra det?

Nobody here?
Ring the bell!

Would you like to write your question?
Here you can find
paper and a pen

Conclusion:

We can reach as far as we like and really become a library for all and everyone!

We thank you for your attention

Lynn Alpberg lynn.alpberg@stockholm.se

Britt-Marie Ingdén-Ringselle britt.marie.ingden@stockholm.se

Ingrid Källström ingrid.kallstrom@mtm.se